LOWELL SCHOOLS: We're on the Move...

School Attendance-Every Day Matters!

Traditionally the months of January and February take "a hit" in student attendance due to student illness and other reasons. This month we are taking time to remind parents about the importance of school attendance. If students miss 10% or more of school days (about 17 days in our schools), they are considered to be chronically absent and are at high risk of falling behind. Missed days add up quickly. For example missing two days a week can easily put a child's academic achievement at risk.

Research clearly indicates that students who do not miss school get better grades, behave better in school and at home, and are more likely to attend college or career training leading to higher paying jobs as adults. Students who do not attend school on a regular basis do not perform up to their ability and have a higher risk of dropping out of school. If your child has minor complaints about his/her health, you should send him/her to school. If he/she has a fever (or has had a fever in the last 24 hours) or is vomiting, then clearly he/she should stay at home. If a doctor advises staying at home, he/she should do so. Otherwise, students should be at school. Parents can help with attendance by:

1. Stressing the importance of attending school every day and working hard while at school;
2. Making appointments outside of the school day if possible;
3. Making sure students are well rested on school nights to be mentally alert during school days; and,
4. Contacting the school counselor, teachers, and administrators when your student needs academic help.

If a student does become ill and needs to stay home, please be sure to call the school secretaries to excuse the absence and to work to determine a way for your student to make up any missing work. If a student is out of class for academic or athletic reasons (like fieldtrips or athletic competitions), please help remind your student to request homework for the time they are out of class prior to leaving the school.

As always, we would like to give a big "shout out" to our parents and community for your continued support of our students and school programs. You are an integral part of our team in the education of our youth.

Senior Projects Almost Complete

In one month (by the end of January) all of Lowell will hear a "collective sigh of relief" coming from the 2019 senior class. Every year the seniors at Lowell complete a senior project that entails a career research paper, internships, job shadows, or product creation, and a 10-15 minute presentation to a panel of three judges and often an audience of 25 or more other students listening to the presentation. No amount of moaning and groaning gets the seniors out of this assignment. The senior project is an assignment that meets several local and state requirements for graduation. This year the seniors are researching and completing a wide variety of career projects including construction, psychology, engineering, medical field, EMT, forestry, veterinary technician, architecture, electrician/lineman, mechanic, dentistry, industrial pipe fitting, athletic trainer, furniture design, gaming, video animation, photography, food service industry, and music arrangement and performance. While seniors may be stressed about this now, by the time they finish (if they are like previous senior classes), they will count this assignment as one of the most worthwhile projects they completed in high school. The senior project is designed to be both rigorous and relevant to the students' futures.

Many members of the community have helped the seniors by either providing opportunity for job shadows or internships. Some community members and teachers have volunteered to serve as mentors to the students. Our thanks goes out to all of those who have helped seniors with their projects. We greatly appreciate your willingness to serve.

Academic New Year's Resolutions

It's that time of year again...the time that we all sit down and make goals for self-improvement for the coming year...better known as "New Year's Resolutions". This year the students at Lowell in grades 7-12 will be making academic resolutions to try to improve their overall grade performance for Semester One. The resolutions range from "passing all classes" to "getting a 4.0 GPA". All academic resolutions are approved by teachers and student leaders. If you are a relative or neighbor of a Lowell Jr/Sr High student, be sure to ask them how they are doing on their academic resolution and encourage them to keep working hard!

Junior High Wrestling has big turnout

Team members include 8th graders Aric Coleman, Sienna Hymer, Trapper Roat, Lily Haynes, Danner Debusk and Beauden Asher; 7th graders Taylor Horton, Cayden Erlei, Kelly Scharff, Justus Thurman and Rowan Files; 6th graders Levi Stewart, Harley Hardison, Hayden Savio, Aiden Albright, Jamar Thurman, Dayson DeBusk, Ashton Moncreif, Caleb Montieth, Ryan Pelroy, Paul Clark and Eily Asher; and, 5th graders Saul Clark and David Finch. Junior High Students of the Month

Carter Halvorsen is an 8th grader at Lowell Jr/Sr High School. Carter's parent are Tim and Corrina Halvorsen. Carter is new this year. He works very hard academically and had adapted well to a new school. His interests are exploring, hiking, technology, flying drones and many more exciting interests. He also likes to cook, play video games and watch YouTube videos in his free time.

Nevaeh Howard is a 7th grade student. Her parents are Bridgett and Aldot. She has two sisters and a brother. Nevaeh is an awesome student who is always smiling. She works hard at keeping her grades up and volunteers to help with any task that needs to be done. She likes to play volleyball and basketball. Her favorite things to do in her free time are read, write, cook and play games.

Congratulations Carter and Nevaeh for being selected as students of the month for Lowell Jr. High!

FROM THE LOWELL FIRE DISTRICT

By Chief Lon Dragt

This year a tremendous gift was given to the Lowell Rural Fire Protection District. A very generous donation was received which allowed us to give back to the community in other ways than just providing medical and emergency services.

We here at Lowell Rural Fire Protection District truly appreciate the support not only from our community members, but from neighboring communities also. Without all of your support we would not be able to provide the service that we do.

This year we received generous cash donations from Oregon Community Credit Union, Lithia Toyota Springfield and Fall Creek Farm & Nursery. Gifts were donated by Bridge Town Market as well as Splash and Eugene Parks & Recreation. Without this support we would have a difficult time providing this dinner. Special thanks go out to Chef Billy with the Lowell School District who was able to provide the food service for the community.

Thank you all again. Because of these generous donations we were able to serve 225 patrons this year. Thank you all who attended — we enjoyed the opportunity to talk with everyone.

Bottom row: Prize Table, Crowd Shot and Dessert Table

You'll need more than the right shoe size to fill these boots!

It takes a special person to fill the boots of a volunteer firefighter. Someone with a desire to do something important for the community. Someone with courage and dedication, who isn't afraid of hard work, and is willing to accept the challenge of a difficult job. It takes a person who considers respect and appreciation award enough, and who is glad to help.

If you're this kind of person, you're needed as a volunteer firefighter. Come down to the firehouse and talk to us. We might be able to fit you with a pair of boots. Lowell Fire District 389 N. Pioneer Street Lowell, Oregon 541-937-3393.
