

Hello Lowell Families and community,

It's the final push before a much-needed winter break! Today, Friday, December 9th, Lundy 6th grade students will be presenting their "Living Wax Museum" from 9-11:30am in the Study & Testing room at Lundy. Be sure to check it out!

Friday, December 16, will be the Self-Manager assembly for Lundy kiddos!

Unfortunately, LifeTouch was unable to complete picture retakes this week, so they have been rescheduled for January 10th. We will let you know when we have a code.

Next week is Spirit week at Lundy: Monday is ugly sweater weather, Tuesday is mad about plaid, Wednesday is jingle bells, Thursday is candy cane and Friday is Christmas jammies!

Spirit week at LHS is next week as well! Monday is Christmas morning (AKA PJ day!), Tuesday is flannel day, Wednesday is New Year's Eve formal, Thursday is Christmas character and Friday is ugly sweater or Christmas spirit.

Did you know that Santa's Helpers are working at Lowell Jr/Sr High? If you have a gift that needs assembling, bring it on over to the shop our "helpers" will work their magic! If you have questions, send emails to ryarbrough@lowell.k12.or.us.

Progress reports for LHS were mailed out last week. Be sure to check ParentVUE and StudentVue for updates and grade changes. If your student has outstanding or missing assignments, encourage them to get them turned in. Afterschool tutoring happens every day. If additional support is needed, encourage your student to stay for tutoring.

December 12, 2022 is the Choir and Band Winter Concert at Lowell Jr/Sr High. The performance begins at 7:00pm in the Cafetorium. This is a lovely way to get into the holiday season and enjoy performances by very talented musicians.

On the same night, High school Varsity basketball will play Yoncalla at home. Girls begin at 6:00pm and boys at 7:30pm in the main gym.
