

Hello Lowell Families and Community,

It's Pie season! Lundy will be selling their annual Thanksgiving pies to save you from the hassle and crowds! Order forms went home with students on Wednesday. Be sure to check their backpacks.

Picture retakes for Lundy students will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 12th. Please use the same code as the original one to place your order.

It's time for our first Book Fair of the year on November 13th & 14th from 3:00-6:30pm in Lundy room #3. Please be sure to stop in and check out all the goodies.

Our annual Title I night is happening on Thursday, Nov. 14th from 5:30-6:30pm. You will have the opportunity to browse through donated books and make your very own bookmark. If you have not RSVP'd and plan to attend, please send in your RSVP so that we can get an accurate count and can plan for everyone.

Report cards are being mailed home this week. Also be sure to check your ParentVue to get a sneak peek before they arrive in the mail.

This week's Lowell Jr/Sr High School Red Devils of the Week are Alauna Young, Colton Alexander, JM Arcena, and Matti Skordahl.

Congratulations to the Lowell High School Football and Volleyball teams on receiving Academic All-State honors! Our football team will compete in the first round of state playoffs this Friday, November 8th at 7:00pm at Gervais High School. Admission is set by OSAA at $10 for adults and $6 for students. Digital ticketing is preferred and must be used for credit or debit card payments. Tickets can be purchased at <https://www.osaa.org/tickets> or on the OSAA Live mobile app.

November 10th is the 249th birthday for the US Marine Corps. Click here to check out a birthday message. <https://www.cmc.marines.mil/Birthday/>

Don't forget that there is no school on Monday, November 11th in honor of Veteran's Day. We invite you to take the time to celebrate the veterans in our community. Looking for a celebration event, check out the Albany Veteran's Day Parade: <https://www.linncountyveteransdayparade.org/parade>.

Stay safe, healthy, and kind!
